

MULTICULTURAL YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

By demonstrating the value of young, multicultural people in positions of leadership within multicultural community organisation creates and celebrates diversity. This gathering of minds, enhances intergenerational interactions & competence

MILLENIALS

- Digital natives
- Team players
- Ambitious
- Keen to take on responsibility
- Value work/life balance
- Concerned with organisational ethics
- Accustomed to receiving regular feedback
- Globally & locally connected via social media

BENEFITS OF ENGAGEMENT

STRATEGIES & TOOLS

- Seek out intercultural youth leaders who have shared values
- Reach out to youth forums including cultural groups, schools, social & sporting clubs
- Obtain cultural competency training
- Establish & maintain social media platforms
- Regularly promote a diverse range of opportunities
- Network between organisations to find like minded youths
- Create opportunities to develop their business & networking skills
- Allow young people to have a valuable voice, rather than tokenistic presence
- Celebrate youth achievements, milestones
- Acknowledge & participate in National Youth Week

MOVING FORWARD

- Succession plan
- Embrace opportunities for peer education & intergenerational understanding
- Be open to all the connections & possibilities available within your social & professional networks
- If you can't do it yourself, meet like-minded people who can support you
- Establish a mentoring program
- Promote healthy debate & robust discussion

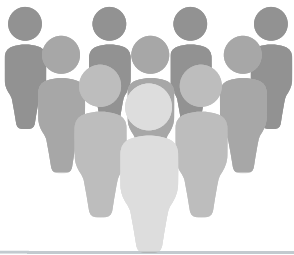

WORKSHEET

MULTICULTURAL YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

WHAT ARE YOUR ORGANISATION'S
YOUTH ENGAGEMENT NEEDS?

WHAT PREPARATIONS WILL NEED TO BE TAKEN TO IMPROVE YOUTH ENGAGEMENT?

WHAT TOOLS DO YOU HAVE TO SUPPORT INTERGENERATIONAL ENGAGEMENT?

