

GOOD GOVERNANCE

Enhancing your governance
for the future

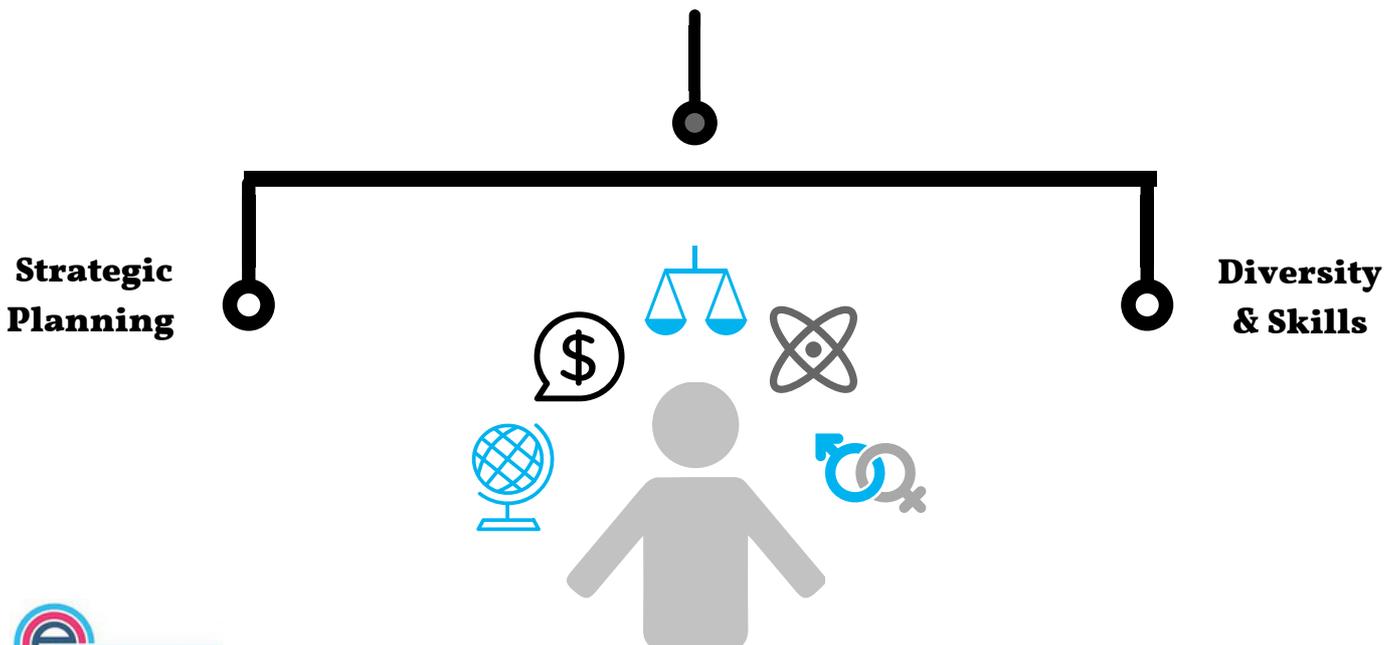

By demonstrating good governance structures & systems, multicultural community groups are providing strong leadership to their communities of interest who benefit from the collective voice and experience.

FIVE PILLARS OF GOOD GOVERNANCE

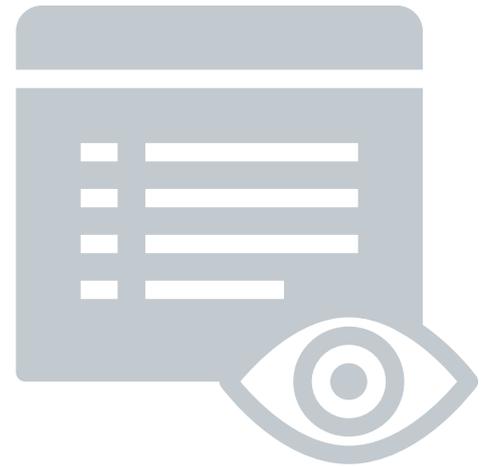

THE BOARD

STRATEGIC PLANNING

Strategic planning is the process of describing an organisation's direction & documenting the agreed outcomes that particularly meet development, sustainability and membership needs. It also includes the required resources & associated allocation for an organisation to achieve its desired directive.

MAJOR STEPS

- Establish your Core Values
- Develop a Purpose
- Create a Mission Statement
- Implement Strategic & Risk Plans
- Develop an Operational Plan
- Budget the financials & available resources
- Report; monthly, quarterly & annually
- Review & Monitor Performance
- Invest in Sustainable Practices

STRATEGIC PLAN

- Consult with stakeholders to establish common goals, inspire success and agreement
- Establish priorities & intended outcomes
- Allocate responsibilities & resources
- Outline the required actions
- Review & adjust direction
- Circulate the strategic plan

CORE VALUES

Core values represents the organisation's core cultural priorities, including the priorities of its membership

PURPOSE

Purpose describes the organisation's operations and duty to its membership

VISION

Vision outlines the current directions and aspirations in order for the organisation to effect change

MISSION

Mission describes the purpose of the organisation

RISK PLAN

A risk plan prepares to foresee risks, estimate impacts, and define responses including a positive or negative effect on the organisation's objectives

OPERATIONAL PLAN

An operational plan outlines and guides the agreed aims of the operational team which align with the strategic objectives and include assigned responsibilities, time frames, performance indicators and the required resources to achieve the agreed aims

EXAMPLES OF STRATEGIC PLANS

Here are some examples of strategic plans demonstrated by ECCV and our Futures Project partners.
