

JUDE EDIAE PROFILE

QEAC, NECLP, Dip, ND, BA-Agric Econs & Ext (NYC), BA-BEHP, GradCertMgt, FAICD, FIIM, MBA (HRM)

Jude is a successful community support worker, business manager, entrepreneur, investor, leader, evangelist, coach, speaker, counsellor. Jude's purpose in life is "to help people to build a brighter future". A skilled professional with 25+ years of diverse and progressive experience in a variety of industries with international career portfolio. His expertise includes projects management, social networking, events planning, office management and administration; records management; liaising with senior corporate and government representatives; calendar and schedule, management; documentation and reporting; superior customer service; software instruction and independent business management. He is a dedicated leader with demonstrated hands-on management style in the development and implementation of strategic plans to ensure growth. He has a great passion for community development, cultural diversity, current affairs, international travel, migration, and continues learning

His experience includes Owner & Director of Jobhib Intl Enterprises, both in Australia and oversea, Secretary/Board of Directors – NFP in Melbourne, Business manager AIA & T, Support worker St John of God Health Care, Support Worker Yoorolla, Career Aktrapid Nursing Bureau, Our Lady's Parish Craigieburn/Roxburgh Park – Group Leader and parish council member, Founder and president of youth group, Team Leader Isi Community Nigeria, Personal Care Assistant Corpus Christi Community Greenvale, Supervisor Okomu Oil palm Company Plc Nigeria, Career Viva Nursing Home, Co-founder and Coordinator of Student Interdenominational Fellowship in Nigeria, Collaborated with community leaders, priests to established two parish and three mass centers, Facilitator/Intercessory leader of several conferences and retreat, Co-founder of Trinitarium Prayer Group (TPG) under the Archdiocese of Melbourne.

Jude has Master in Business Administration (HRM) Australian Institute of Business, Bachelor of Psychology, Swinburne University, Bachelor of Agricultural Economics and Extension UNIBEN (NYC), National Diploma in Agricultural Technology, Diploma of Community Welfare Work, Certificate IV in Disability, and Cert III in Aged Care, Graduate New Emerging Community Leader- Leadership Victoria. Jude is a member of Australian Institute of Company Directors – Lead Generations, Professional Fellow of Institute of Information Management (IIM-Africa), International Leadership Training – ICCRS.

Jude is also an active volunteer with his recent role of Victoria Multicultural Commission Regional Advisory Council for the North & West Region appointment, Multicultural Community Ambassador for GC2018, Social & Welfare Secretary Nigerian Society of Victoria (NSV), Interview Panel Member for New Emerging Community Leadership Program – Leadership Victoria, Support Facilitator Africa Leadership Development Training (Think Tank), PRO Edo club of Australia, Lead Pilot project on Social Disintegration, and designation of effective strategies to support newly arrivals to obtain suitable accommodation and gain employment. Jude is in the process of finalizing his advisory board member (Gambling) appointment with the Ethnic Council Community of Victoria (ECCV).