

Bachelor of Global Studies at Monash

Diversity, Inclusion and Innovation

Associate Professor Susanna Scarparo and Dr Gabriel Garcia Ochoa

What is a Bachelor of Global Studies?

How can we conceptualise the most important challenges confronting our global communities, devise new and innovative solutions to these challenges, and communicate the solutions effectively?

WHAT IS A BACHELOR OF GLOBAL STUDIES?

WHAT IS A BACHELOR OF GLOBAL STUDIES?

- Define Leadership
- Leadership for a better world model
- Skills for global engagement – cultural literacy, transformative dialogue, reflective listening – developed over three years
- Key themes of belonging, the legacy of conflict, social cohesion
- Engage with expert guest lecturers, industry partners, community organisations and government agencies

WHAT IS A BACHELOR OF GLOBAL STUDIES?

- Global Cultural Literacies
- International Relations
- International Studies
- Human Rights (from 2018)

WHAT IS A BACHELOR OF GLOBAL STUDIES?

Study Abroad

- Exchange with Monash's Study Abroad partners around the world
- Intensive and semester length study at Monash Malaysia or at the Monash Prato centre in Italy

Internships

- Range of opportunities – industry, government agencies, NGOs, community based organisations, educational institutions

WHAT IS A BACHELOR OF GLOBAL STUDIES?

The BGS has its own Advisory Board, providing direct links into business, government and the social sector.

“Students get to develop their leadership capabilities in the field with real stakeholders, to expand their networks and develop their CV for their first professional job application post graduation.”

Michael Hann, Advisory Board Chair

How do we teach diversity, inclusion and innovation?

- Leadership for Social Change

- Capstone Unit:
 - Real World Global Issue
 - Contextualization, Legislation, Human Dimension
 - Stakeholder acquisition

Collaboration with ECCV

THANK YOU!

susanna.scarparo@monash.edu

gabriel.garcia-ochoa@monash.edu