CONNECT

We are proud to recognise the people of the Kulin Nation as the first Australians, cultural leaders and traditional custodians of the land from which we work to advocate for culturally and linguistically diverse Victorians.

We pay our respects to their elders past, present and emerging.

ABOUT THE ECCV

The Ethnic Communities' Council of Victoria (ECCV) has been the key advocate for culturally and linguistically diverse communities in Victoria since 1974. ECCV is the link between these communities, government and wider Victoria. We are a member-driven organisation representing over 220 organisations and advocating on behalf of 70,000 members across Victoria.
