

INTERCULTURAL YOUNG ADVOCACY LEADERS
CONNECT ADVOCATE EMPOWER

Join

ECCV

NOW RECRUITING YOUNG LEADERS

What's involved?

- Intercultural Young Advocacy Leaders (IYAL) is a sub-committee of the Board of the Ethnic Communities' Council of Victoria (ECCV).
- IYAL offers culturally diverse young people opportunities to develop advocacy and leadership skills within a co-designed framework, while providing ECCV with advice and input on matters affecting young people of CALD background in Victoria.
- The sub-committee helps connect ECCV with CALD young people across Victoria, while developing future leadership pathways within and between the membership of the ECCV.

Who can be part of IYAL?

The IYAL program is made up of 12 young people aged 21 to 30 from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds selected for 2 years.

Find out more

Position Description here

Terms of Reference here

Please send a CV and cover letter addressing the Key Selection Criteria by email to Rashmi Kumar, Policy and Advocacy Manager at eccv@eccv.org.au
Further information can be requested by phoning 03 9354 9555.

Applications close 19 April 2021